

Society Scene

SunSentinel
 A Community Affairs publication of Sun Sentinel featuring Broward County's nonprofit scene.
 April 2, 2015

PACE Center for Girls Broward

Victoria, 17, left, Connie Chaney, Marco Vico, and Michelle Anderson
 PHOTOS BY KARA STARZYK

What's happening: Corks & Forks FUNraiser
Mark your calendar: April 30 from 6 to 8:30 p.m.
Where: Café Vico, 1125 N. Federal Highway, Fort Lauderdale
The details: Women's Executive Club members and guests will mix and mingle at the event. There will be food-pairing stations, wine sampling, raffles and a silent auction.
Event leaders: Co-chairs are Michelle Anderson and Connie Chaney.
Sponsors: Roberta Stanley of Brinkley Morgan and Dr. Will Richardson of Natura Dermatology
Paying it forward: Proceeds benefit PACE, an educational and advocacy center for at-risk girls, and the WEC Women Empowering Women program, which provides financial, educational, emotional and professional support to women re-entering the workplace
Tickets: $50
Info: www.wecftl.com

Kathleen Ryan, left, Pam Dearden and Ila Bennett

Fredericka, 16, left, Melanie, 17, Tiarha, 17, and Victoria, 17

Diane Hickey, left, Tiarha, 17, and Christine Sjoblom