

January 16, 2014

Helping hands

Law firm announces food drive supporting emergency assistance program

PAGE 4

SOCIETY NEWS

Law firm hosts food drive for Boca Helping Hands

BY PHYLLIS STEINBERG

The law firm of Brinkley Morgan recently celebrated the grand opening of a new Boca Raton office with a food drive benefiting Boca Helping Hands, a community-based charity that provides food, emergency assistance and job mentoring services.

Attorneys and staff collected nearly 1,000 pounds of food that will be distributed to clients in need at the Boca Helping Hands' food center.

Symphony luncheon offers 'Style and Substance'

Mark your calendar! The Symphony of Americas "Style and Substance" luncheon to benefit the Symphony of Americas will take place Feb. 20 at the Hyatt Regency Pier 66 in Fort Lauderdale.

For information, call 954-644-9049.

*Boca Helping Hands food drive: Kenneth Gordon, left, Marissa Pullano and Roberta Stanley.

A collage of small images and text related to the Hi-Rise Society. It includes a photo of a group of people, a "WANTED" sign, and other small text elements. At the bottom, there is a banner that says "WANTED" and "HIGHEST PRICES PAID" with a logo for "ARISEPHONY".