

Look who's reading boca raton
M A G A Z I N E

Name:
Yueh-Mei Kim Nutter

Age:
51

Hometown:
Born in Tainan, Taiwan; resides in Wilton Manors

Occupation:
Florida Bar board-certified marital and family law attorney with the Boca law firm of Brinkley Morgan, Supreme Court-certified mediator and Guardian ad Litem

Biggest Achievements:
Creating the state's first formal training program for people who wish to serve as Guardians ad Litem in family court proceedings; founding the South Palm Beach County Collaborative Law Group to help clients and other local residents have less litigious divorce proceedings.

Proudest Accomplishments:
Being the mother of two wonderful boys; my community involvement with groups such as Impact 100 Palm Beach County and the Community Partnership Group of Palm Beach County; receiving the 2014 EPIC award from the Mental Health Association of Southeast Florida for my advocacy of mental-health issues.

Hobbies:
Reading

Why she reads Boca magazine:
Boca Raton magazine is our community's premier publication for learning about local happenings, people and places. With its strong editorial and beautiful design, I look forward to reading my issue every month!