

DBR to Honor 20 South Florida Women in Law

Review staff, Daily Business Review

August 10, 2015 | 0 Comments

Twenty current and former judges, public servants, veteran litigators and other South Florida attorneys with notable achievements in law will be honored at the Daily Business Review's second annual Women in Law event.

More than 70 candidates from law firms, courts, other public agencies, education and public interest law were reviewed as part of the selection process for the recognition luncheon to be held Oct. 14 at the JW Marriott Miami.

The honorees are: Laura Adams, Miami-Dade State Attorney's Office; Jacqueline Arango, Akerman; Mary Barzee Flores, Stearns Weaver Miller Weissler Alhadeff & Sitterson; Joni Armstrong Coffey, Broward County Attorney's Office; Marcia Cooke, U.S. District Court, Miami; Vivian de las Cuevas-Diaz, Holland & Knight; Mary Anne Franks, University of Miami School of Law; Lori Hartglass, Arnstein & Lehr; Patricia Ireland, Phillips Richard & Rind; Julie Braman Kane, Colson Hicks Eidson; Beth-Ann Krinsky, Greenspoon Marder; Patricia Lebow, Broad and Cassel; Cindy Lederman, Miami-Dade Circuit Court; Patricia Menendez-Cambo, Greenberg Traurig; Yueh-Mei Kim Nutter, Brinkley Morgan; Abigail Price-Williams, Miami-Dade County Attorney's Office; Evelyn Sheehan, U.S. Attorney's Office; Lee Stapleton, Baker & McKenzie; Adele Stone, Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney; and Jayne Weintraub, Broad and Cassel.

<http://www.dailybusinessreview.com/id=1202734347708/DBR-to-Honor-20-South-Florida-Women-in-Law>